

Dear friends,

Are we finally turning the corner on the coronavirus quarantines? Despite the conflicting, confusing reports from the media (and despite the conflicting, confusing, and frequently alarming directives from the powers that be), it does look like there's a end of this long hibernation now in sight. Our guess is, like Claire and I, you will be delighted when the quarantines are lifted and America can finally get back to work.

But since we are still not able to get together in person just yet, we will still keep creating these “activity pages” for you. It's not much – we know that. But we want to do something at least to help alleviate a bit of the boredom, engage your mind and memories, and let you know that you are in our frequent thoughts and prayers.

Until next time,

Denny & Claire Hartford

Many would agree that the two most influential American clergymen in the 20th Century were the Roman Catholic Bishop Fulton Sheen and the Baptist evangelist Billy Graham. So below, for your interest and reflection, I post below just a few of their perceptive observations.

“Someone asked me recently if I didn’t think God was unfair, allowing me to have Parkinson’s and other medical problems when I have tried to serve Him faithfully. I replied that I did not see it that way at all. Suffering is part of the human condition, and it comes to us all. The key is how we react to it, either turning away from God in anger and bitterness or growing closer to Him in trust and confidence.” (Rev. Graham)

“Live each day as you would climb a mountain. An occasional glance toward the summit keeps the goal in mind, but many beautiful scenes are to be observed from each new vantage point. So climb slowly, enjoying each passing moment; and then the view from the summit will serve a more rewarding climax for your journey.” (Bishop Sheen)

“The framers of our Constitution meant we were to have freedom of religion, not freedom from religion.” (Rev. Graham)

“America, it is said, is suffering from intolerance -- it is not. It is suffering from tolerance. Tolerance of right and wrong, truth and error, virtue and evil, Christ and chaos. Our country is not nearly so overrun with the bigoted as it is overrun with the broadminded.” (Bishop Sheen)

“Courage is contagious. When a brave man takes a stand, the spines of others are often stiffened.” (Rev. Graham)

“In journalism, the modern man wants controversy, not truth.” (Bishop Sheen)

“The cross shows us the seriousness of our sin -- but it also shows us the immeasurable love of God.” (Rev. Graham)

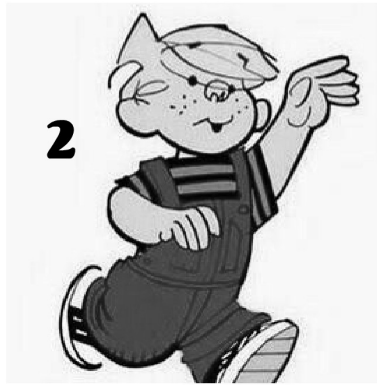

“God does not love us because we are valuable. We are valuable because God loves us.” (Bishop Sheen)

“Christ not only died for all: he died for each.” (Rev. Graham)
